SOUS LES TOITS DE PARIS, (Under the Roofs of Paris)

A rare artistic milestone is this first sound film of René Clair, a gem of comedy and music which is the quintessence of Paris. In the crowded tenement district of the city live two inseparable companions, a charming girl with whom they fall in love, and a neighborhood bully. The story is told by Clair with a minimum use of dialogue, and the greatest charm of song and cinema character. Directed and written by René Clair. Sets by Lazare Meerson. With Albert Préjean, Pola Illery, Gaston Modot. This will be shown in the Lecture Hall, Monday, July 9 - 8:30 P.M. - Admission 50¢.

ALL YOU SQUARES....PERK UP!! SQUARE DANCE SCHEDULED FOR JULY 17TH

Make plans now to attend the square dance on Tuesday evening, 8:30 PM in the Recreation Hall. A 5-piece band will provide the music and folk dance music will be an added attraction for those of you who specialize in folk dancing. Remember, for the sweetest music this side of the Reactor, get out those jeans, bright shirts, and skirts and plan to swing your partner July 17th. Refreshments will be available and admission is free.

L. R. A. PARTY

There will be the annual weiner roast to welcome the summer students on Wednesday, July 11 at the Commandant's House. Supper will be provided for the slight charge of $1.00. The time is 6:30 P.M. Sign the lists on your dorm bulletin board or call B. Welt, Ext. 301 if you are interested. Everyone come and join the party.
